SAVE THE DATE! TAHU STATE CONVENTION APRIL 27-29, 2022

IT'S HAPPENING NEAR YOU!

Welcome to TAHU's eNews, new look!

After I was asked to take over this publication, I had second thoughts. Eventually, I caved to new TAHU president Nedra Clingan, but not before thinking: How can I fill the shoes of the award-winning Cynthia Swanson? It's not likely I can, but I'll sure try.

Because this newsletter is published bimonthly, please keep your chapter events current on your website so I can update them in this publication. Lisa Strug with Jaffe Communications is ready and updating the TAHU website daily, so feel free to reach out to her at any time at, lisastrug45@gmail.com

Also, while I have your attention, allow me to plug our TAHU quarterly magazine. There's something in it for everyone and just simply click this link: https://tahu.org/images/downloads/Newsletters/tahu\_summer\_issue\_2021\_final\_low\_res.pdf to read the latest issue. You can also find it in your inbox.

In other news: It looks as though in-person meetings might be back in full force. The state convention was a big success, with all 50 corporate sponsorships having sold out and over 300+ people in attendance. It was great to see everyone face to face!
